

Followed their girl/boyfriend who got a job there.

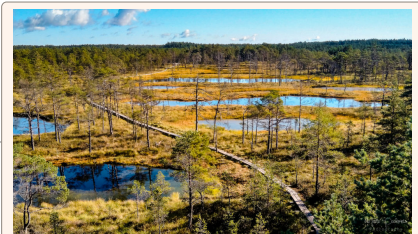

Historical background.

They fell in love with the country.

Cold, north, not so expensive, the capital city is near the ocean or sea.

For the nature, they knew that there is a lot of forest and they love that.

The reasons of why foreigners settled in Estonia.

The arts (good choirs) and literature, the creative community.

They wanted to go in Europe and in a cold country.

They got really good feedbacks from friends who convinced them to go there.
